

The New Mexico Chapter of The Wildlife Society in partnership with Sundance Consulting is offering three scholarships for Native American students from New Mexico to attend the 2019 Joint Annual Meeting (JAM) of the New Mexico and Arizona chapters of The Wildlife Society (TWS) and the Arizona/New Mexico Chapter of the American Fisheries Society (AFS). Each scholarship will cover registration costs and the Student-Mentor lunch. The conference will be held Feb. 7-9, 2019 at the Marriott Pyramid Hotel in Albuquerque, NM.

This is an outstanding opportunity for Wildlife and Fisheries students to gain new knowledge about wildlife and fisheries management, network with professionals and other students, and build valuable relationships that will last a lifetime.

To compete for one of these scholarships, simply provide us with the following:

1. Name and contact information
2. What tribe/pueblo you are affiliated
3. What ideally you would like to gain or experience by attending the 2019 JAM

Please include "Sundance Scholarship" in the subject line and send responses via email to: twsnewmexico@gmail.com

Deadline to apply is Jan 15th!

Thank you and good luck!
